

Psalm 19

1. The heav'ns a - bove de - clare the glo - ry of our God;
 2. No lan - guage do they use, nor an - y spo - ken word;
 3. God set a tent in heav'n, a dwell - ing for the sun,
 4. The sun goes forth in might from heav - en's far - thest end
 5. The per - fect law of God will make the soul re - vive;

and what his hands have made the skies pro - claim a - broad. For they ut - ter not a sound and yet their voice is heard. Thro' - which, like a bride - groom, leaves his wed - ding tent at dawn, and and runs its course a - bove un - til the day is spent. Its his stat - utes, sure and true, will make the sim - ple wise. The day by day they pour out speech, and night by night their know - ledge teach.

 out the world their voice re - sounds, their words to earth's re - mot - est bounds.
 like a strong, he - ro - ic man, goes forth with joy his race to run.
 path from end to end com - plete there's noth - ing hid - den from its heat.
 pre - cepts of the Lord are right and fill the heart with great de - light.

6. God's ra-di-ant com-mands shed light on what we see; the feat of God is pure and lasts e-ter-nal-ly, The standards of the Lord ex-press his per-fect truth and righ-teous-ness.

8. Who can dis-cern his faults? Forgive my hid-den sin. Pro-ject from will-ful sins; let them not reign with-in. Then blame-less shall your ser-vant be, from great trans-gres-sion now set free.

7. Of far more worth than gold than much pure gold they are; than hon-ey from the comb, than hon-ey sweet-er far. They warn the ser-vant of the Lord; in keep-ing them is great re-ward.

9. So let the words I speak be pleasing in your sight; and let my in-most thoughts be in your judg-ment right. O Lord, you are a rock to me; you have re-deemed and set me free.
